Now! The Amazing Facts about BALDNESS

...AND WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT

The following facts are brought to the attention of the public because of a widespread belief that nothing can be done about hair loss. This belief has no basis in medical fact. Worse, it has condemned many men and women to needless baldness by their neglect to treat certain accepted causes of hair loss.

There are six principal types of hair loss, or alopecia, as it is known in medical terms:

1. Alopecia from diseases of the scalp
2. Alopecia from other diseases or from an improper functioning of the body
3. Alopecia of the aged (senile baldness)
4. Alopecia areata (loss of hair in patches)
5. Alopecia of the young (premature baldness)
6. Alopecia at birth (congenital baldness)

Senile, premature and congenital alopecia cannot be helped by anything now known to modern science. Alopecia from improper functioning of the body requires the advice and treatment of your family physician.

BUT MANY MEDICAL AUTHORITIES NOW BELIEVE A SPECIFIC SCALP DISEASE IS THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF HAIR LOSS.

This disease is called Seborrhea and can be broadly classified into two clinical forms with the following symptoms:

1. DRY SEBORRHEA: The hair is dry, lifeless, and without gloss. A dry flaky dandruff is usually present with accompanying itching. Hair loss is considerable and increases with the progress of this disease.
2. OILY SEBORRHEA: The hair and scalp are oily and greasy. The hair is slightly sticky to the touch and has a tendency to mat together. Dandruff takes the form of head scales. Scalp is usually itchy. Hair loss is severe with baldness as the end result.

Many doctors agree that to NEGLECT these symptoms of DRY and OILY SEBORRHEA is to INVITE BALDNESS.

Seborrhea is believed to be caused by three germ organisms — staphylococcus albus, pityrosporum ovale, and acnes bacillus.

These germs attack the sebaceous gland causing an abnormal working of this fat gland. The hair follicle, completely surrounded by the enlarged diseased sebaceous gland, then begins to atrophy. The hair produced becomes smaller and smaller until the hair follicle dies. Baldness is the inevitable result. (See illustration.)

But seborrhea can be controlled, particularly in its early stages. The three germ organisms believed to cause seborrhea, can and should be eliminated before they destroy your normal hair growth.

A post-war development, Comate Medicinal Formula kills these three germ organisms on contact. Proof of Comate's germ-killing properties has been demonstrated in laboratory tests recently conducted by one of the leading testing laboratories in America. (Complete report on file and copies are available on request.)

When used as directed, Comate Medicinal Formula controls seborrhea—stimulates the flow of blood to the scalp—helps stop scalp itch and burn—improves the appearance of your hair and scalp—helps STOP HAIR LOSS due to seborrhea. Your hair looks more attractive and alive.

You may safely follow the example of thousands who first were skeptical, then curious, and finally decided to avail themselves of Comate Medicinal Formula.

A Few of the Many Grateful Expressions By Users of Comate Medicinal Formula

"My hair was coming out for years and I tried everything. Nothing stopped it until I tried Comate. Now my hair has stopped coming out. It looks so much thicker. My friends have noticed my hair and they all say it looks so much better."
—Mrs. R.E.J., Stevenson, Ala.

"Your hair formula got rid of my dandruff; my head does not itch any more. I think it is the best of all the formulas I have used."
—E.E., Hamilton, Ohio.

"Your formula is everything you claim it to be and the first 10 days trial freed me of a very bad case of dry seborrhea."
—J.E.M., Long Beach, Calif.

"I do want to say that just within five days I have obtained a great improvement in my hair. I do want to thank you and the Comate Laboratories for producing such a wonderful and amazing formula."
—M.M., Johnstown, Pa.

"I have found almost instant relief. My itching has stopped with one application."
—J.N., Stockton, Calif.

"My hair looks thicker, not falling out like it used to. Will not be without Comate in the house."
—R.W., Llandale, R. I.

"I haven't had any trouble with dandruff since I started using Comate."
—L.W.W., Galveston, Tex.

"This formula is everything if not more than you say it is. I am very happy with what it's doing for my hair."
—T.J., Las Cruces, New Mexico

"I find it stops the itch and retards the hair fall. I am thankful for the help it has given me in regard to the terrible itches."
—R.B.L., Philadelphia, Pa.

"The bottle of Comate I got from you has done my hair so much good. My hair has been coming out and breaking off for about 21 years. It has improved so much."
—Mrs. J.E., Lisbon, Ga.

Today these benefits are available to you just as they were to these sincere men and women when they first read about Comate. If your hair is thinning, over-dry or over-oily—if you are troubled with dandruff with increasing hair loss—you may well be guided by the laboratory tests and the experience of thousands of grateful men and women.

Remember, if your hair loss is due to Seborrhea, Comate CAN and MUST help you. If it is due to causes beyond the reach of Comate Medicinal Formula, you have nothing to lose because our GUARANTY POLICY assures the return of your money unless delighted. So why delay when that delay may cause irreparable damage to your hair and scalp. Just mail the coupon below.

WILD FRONTIER

"INDIAN RIVER CROSSING"

Outside Fort Wallington a group of Indian boys were demonstrating their skill with their horses. They were riding bareback and from time to time would shift from one side of a horse to the other. All this was being done for the benefit of some of the sons of newly arrived settlers. Watching all this was a tall man. From his moccasined feet to his tight fitting leather cap, he was six feet three inches. He was all muscle and weighed a little more than two hundred and thirty pounds. His cheek bones were high. The sun and wind had tanned his skin. On his leather coat was the emblem by which Colonel John Raven was famous on the frontier of growing America. The black bird which had come to symbolize the man who was opening the wilderness and making it possible for people to move westward in safety.

"Colonel Raven," asked one of the youngsters. "Why do the Indian boys shift from one side of a horse to the other?"

"Because they must be able to prevent themselves from being a target should an enemy attack. These Indian boys belong to the tribe ruled by Chief Pa-Cha-Ni-Kita. There the care of family horse herds is entrusted to boys eight to twelve years of age except during the severe winter months. Owners of large herds who are sonless, commonly adopt orphan Indian boys to care for their horses. And being a young herder is not an easy task. The boy must be up before daybreak each morning to go after the horses where they had been pastured the previous night. He must drive them to a nearby lake or stream for water, then drive them to a good pasturage near camp. He returns to his lodge for breakfast. Meanwhile, the owner checks up on his horses. Then he gives the boy instructions regarding pasturage during the day. At noon the lad drives the horses for a third time. Then he drives them to their night pasturage, where he hobbles the lead mare to prevent the herd's straying. Now surely, you wouldn't want to take care of a herd of horses!"

The other boys who had been listening with wide open mouths all joined in unison in shouting their combined answer.

"Just give us a chance! When can we start?"

John Raven laughed at the reaction. Then he saw his best friend and companion, Charles Collins, frequently known as Chubby Collins approach him.

"General Henderson says we can start at once. He has some last minute instructions for us. He's waiting in his quarters now."

Seated at his desk, General Henderson quickly spoke to the two frontiersmen.

"You both will proceed at once to the outskirts of Morgan City. A wagon train is being assembled there. It will be your duty to convey it safely to Fort Pearson. Draw any supplies you may need."

The trip to Morgan City was uneventful and took only three weeks. Major Frank Blanton assembled the people in the wagon train and spoke to them.

"You will all be ready to leave at sundown tomorrow. The United States Government has sent Colonel John Raven and Mr. Charles Collins to escort you safely to your destination."

There was a voice of protest. Jed Adams, leader of the wagon train spoke his mind. He was a middle-aged man and powerfully built with a black beard.

"Where are the troops? How can two men help us fight the Injuns? I don't want my family scalped or burned at the stake."

Major Frank Blanton felt it best that he answer at once. And he made a sensible reply.

"No Indian group would attack your wagon train. You have a lot of fighting men and are well armed. Your problems will not be with the redskins. They will be with yourself as you meet new obstacles. If you follow the orders of Colonel Raven, then all will be well."

The rest of the day the hammers rattled on wagon tires and horse shoes. Men shouted and sang as they went about their preparation. For there was a mixture of joy and fear in their hearts. One by one, the wagons, with their white covers, each drawn by six or eight horses, mules, or oxen, stretched their traces. Some of the men were busy cutting timbers for spare axles, tongues, and single-trees.

"Take some spare wheels with you," suggested Colonel Raven. "This is the last of the hardwood area. You can't use soft wood to either fix or make new wheels. I think you should also carry feed for the oxen. When you reach the buffalo land you will not be able to feed them. Buffalo grass grows short. An inch and a half at the most. It fits the long lower jaw of the buffalo. But the even-lipped oxen can't nibble at it."

Early the next morning the long wagon train started on its westward journey. Colonel Raven rode his horse about half a mile ahead of the lead wagon. At his side was Chubby Collins. Whenever he wanted to send a message or get information, Colonel Raven would send his friend back. On the first day they didn't even take time out for a noon meal. Before sunset the wagons stopped.

"The wagons, with tongues outward, are to be pulled into a vast circle," explained the Raven. "The front wheels of one wagon are to be chained to the rear wheels of the next. Thus you will have a powerful fort. Inside it, you will keep your livestock. I shall appoint the night guards and set their watches."

For six days the same procedure was followed. On the afternoon of the seventh day, Jed Adams became alarmed. He could see smoke signals. He waved his hands in the air and fired one shot which was a prearranged signal. Chubby Collins rode back.

"What's the trouble, Mr. Adams?" he asked.

"Injun attack, maybe! We saw smoke signals."

"No attack," corrected Chubby. "The message says that the Raven is with this train and to let it pass through the territory. Chief Wa-Nu-Sha is a good friend of Colonel Raven."

There was a sigh of relief and the wagon train continued on its way. At the banks of the swollen Indian River they stopped.

"Guess we go across one wagon at a time," said Jed. "Our animals are strong."

"But not strong enough to fight that current which is so deceiving," pointed out Colonel Raven.

"You have been trying to run everything since we left Morgan City," snapped back Jed Adams in anger. "'I'll show you how easy it can be for me to cross the river. I'm going to do it right now.'"

Adams jumped into the driver's seat of his large wagon. His wife with their little seven month old baby and a five year old child were in the back. The oxen moved slowly across the water barrier. And then it happened! The beasts found themselves in the midst of a terrific current. The wagon went one way and the animals the other! In their fright they pulled to the side and the wagon turned over. John Raven saw the mother and her children in the water.

"Follow me, Chubby," he shouted. "Save Jed Adams. I'll get his wife and children."

The powerful and well trained horses swam into the stream. They didn't buck the current. Chubby Collins saved the father while Colonel John Raven took care of the mother and children. They were brought to shore. A fire was quickly made and they were given dry things.

"What a fool I was!" moaned Adams.

"Such a fool we have as the captain of our wagon train," said Bill Felaws. "I think we need another captain. I guess you lost everything, Jed Adams."

"There's a bar half a mile down the river," said Raven. "We will pick up whatever is left. Then I will show you how to cross Indian River in safety."

All animals were unhitched from their wagons. Chubby Collins went across the stream with a big rope that was tied firmly to a tree on that bank as well as to one on the other. Using this as a guide line, the animals went over first. Then a rope was attached to one wagon at a time. Twenty animals pulled each wagon across in safety. Everybody was happy but Jed Adams.

"I guess I'm finished as a leader," he told John Raven. "The men won't want me any more."

"Oh yes they do," was the unexpected reply. "It takes a good man to admit he is wrong. I think you learned a lesson cheaply. The West has much to teach you."

The wagon train reached its destination safely. Soon the two men were on their way home.

"But they wanted to get rid of Jed Adams. What did you do?" demanded Chubby Collins.

"Told them I would make you the leader and you would show them the long way back. That did the trick."

AS THE DAYS FOLLOW, THE TALKING TOTEM ASKS FOR MORE AND MORE GOLD FROM RED EAGLE'S PEOPLE, UNTIL--

MY PEOPLE WILL SOON HAVE NO GOLD LEFT! EACH NIGHT THE GOLD THEY BRING VANISHES AND MORE IS ASKED! I WILL DO SOME INVESTIGATING!

LATER-- THE GROUND AT THE BASE OF THE TOTEM HAS BEEN DISTURBED ---AND FLATTENED OUT AGAIN ---AS IF THE TOTEM HAD BEEN MOVED! PERHAPS I'D BEST WATCH THIS TALKING TOTEM TONIGHT!

THAT NIGHT, AS THE TRIBE SLEEPS, RED EAGLE WATCHES -----

NOTHING SO FAR--BUT, NO--WHO IS THAT? BY THE BUFFALO, IT IS ONE OF THE COYOTES WHO ATTACKED ME IN TOWN! HE RUNS FROM THE WOODS TO THE TOTEM!

HARRY---IT'S ME! IT'S OKAY TO COME OUT NOW---THEY'RE ALL ASLEEP!

THE PEDDLER

AND SO IT WAS MIGHTY STRANGE THAT INTO THE PART OF THE LAND THAT THE FIGHTING WAS THE THICKEST, A PEDDLER SHOULD COME RIDING...

GET YOUR CALICO...
PRETTY CALICO! GET YOUR CALICO!

HIS WAGON WAS RIDING REAL LOW ON THE SPRINGS -- BUT NO ONE NOTICED AT THE TIME...

CALICO, LADIES...
IF YE WANT NEW DRESSES, COME
SEE MY CALICO!

WILD FRONTIER

OUT THERE IN THE DREARY WILDERNESS, THE WOMENFOLK WERE STARVED FOR PRETTY THINGS, SO IT WAS NATURAL FOR THEM TO CROWD AROUND THE CHANTING PEDDLER...

THE MEN FOLK WERE SMILING FOR THE FIRST TIME IN MONTHS. IT MADE THEM FEEL GOOD TO SEE THEIR WIVES SO BENT ON PRETTYING UP...

ONLY TROUBLE WAS, WHILE SMILING, THE MEN RELAXED THEIR GUARD...

EVERYTHING HAPPENED SO FAST AND SUDDEN, ALL THEY COULD THINK OF WAS TO Douse THE FLAMES...

AND MEANWHILE, ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STOCKADE...

THEY DIDN'T STAND A CHANCE! THE INJUN TACTIC WORKED SMOOTH AS SILK...

AND DURING THE RUCKUS, CRINGING LIKE A WHIPPED PUPPY UNDER HIS WAGON, WAS THE PEDDLER...

QUIET! NONE OF YOU WILL BE HARMED! WE WILL MARCH YOU BACK TO OUR CAMP-- WHERE YOU WILL BE KEPT CAPTIVE!

MANY OF OUR TRIBESMEN HAVE BEEN TAKEN PRISONER, BUT NOW, WE WILL HAVE ENOUGH WHITES FOR AN EXCHANGE!

SUDDENLY...

LOOK, CHIEF! A WAGON FULL OF BRIGHT CLOTH FOR OUR SQUAWS!

AND THAT'S WHEN THE PEDDLER CRAWLED OUT...

CHIEF-- PLEASE! DON'T LET YOUR MEN DRAG ANY MORE BOLTS OUT OF THE WAGON! THEY'LL ONLY DIRTY 'EM SO THEY WON'T BE ANY USE TO YOUR SQUAWS!

A QUICK JOLTING BLOW...AND THE GUARD CRUMBLD TO THE GROUND...

INSIDE THE LODGE...

SOMEBODY'S SNEAKED UP ON THE GUARDS!

HEAR THAT? THE SECOND GUARD JUST FELL TO THE GROUND!

YOU?

SHHH...ALL YE'LL HAVE TO DO IS KEEP YOUR HEADS AND YE'LL ALL BE FREE!

YUP -- IT WAS THE PEDDLER...

UNDER THE ROLLS OF CALICO MY WAGON'S LOADED WITH RIFLES-- THAT'S WHY IT RIDES SO LOW! I CAME TO YOUR STOCKAGE ON PURPOSE, KNOWING THE INJUNS WERE ABOUT TO RAID IT FOR CAPTIVES!

I WORKED IT SO THEY'D LET ME DRIVE MY WAGON CLEAR INTO THEIR CAMP! THERE ARE ENOUGH RIFLES FOR EVERY MAN HERE!

IT DIDN'T TAKE LONG FOR EVERY INJUN IN CAMP TO BE ROUSED! AND NOW THEY WERE RUSHING THE LODGE...

WILD FRONTIER

BUT THE PEDDLER'S WAGON WAS BACKED RIGHT AGAINST THE OTHER SIDE OF THE LODGE, AND IT HAD TAKEN LESS TIME TO PASS OUT THE RIFLES...

AND SO...

WITH THE INJUNS RUNNING FOR THEIR LIVES, SCARED CLEAR OUT OF THEIR WITS BY RIFLE-FIRE FROM CAPTIVES WHO, THEY HAD BEEN SURE WERE EMPTY-HANDED...

IT WAS RIGHT EASY FOR THE CAPTIVES TO ESCAPE...

WE'RE RIGHT-OBIGED -- BUT HOW COME YE STUCK YOUR NECK OUT SO FAR TO HELP US?

AND WHERE'D YE GET ALL THOSE RIFLES FROM?

BEEN A PEDDLER EVER SINCE MY OWN SETTLEMENT WAS WIPED OUT AT THE START OF THIS YEAR, THERE WAS A CACHE OF RIFLES THERE THAT THE INJUNS OVERLOOKED, AND WHEN I LOADED UP THOSE RIFLES, I TOOK AN OATH I'D USE THEM JUST AS YE SAW ME DO.
